Courtroom Victories

A CROSS-EXAMINATION IN THE CASE, C&R, INC. VS. LIBERTY MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

Read Kitrick's cross-examination of the main defendant-agent. Attorney Doug Roberts requested Kitrick as co-counsel to try the bad faith claim against his client's insurance agent and the agent's employer, Liberty Mutual. Upon cross-examination, he was able to get the agent to admit to making a false statement. The case settled as Kitrick began his closing argument. At stake was a $1 million UM/UDM policy.

THE CLOSING ARGUMENT IN NEMETH VS. CONTE.

Kitrick recants this as a highly difficult soft tissue case with all preexisting issues. The Fairfield County (Ohio) jury awarded close to $90,000, most of it for pain and suffering. At that time, it was the highest soft tissue verdict in the county.

A CROSS-EXAMINATION IN THE CASE, CRAIG SALONSKY VS. RICHARD BIDWELL.

Enjoy Kitrick's cross of the defendant's accident reconstruction expert which led to the expert's admission that if the defendant had not been speeding, the Plaintiff never would have been hit. This admission allowed the jury to find in favor of the Plaintiff who the defendant had in fact countersued.
